

TRUTH: Joshua 1:1-11

Joshua 1:1-4

Joshua was Moses' assistant.

After the death of Moses, what became of Joshua? _____

Moses taught Joshua by example how to lead the people of Israel, and how to obey and trust God in every decision.

Who is teaching me how to obey and trust God in every area of my life?

- If I have a mentor like this, I will thank them this week.
- If I don't have a mentor like this, I will ask my pastor or other godly leader to help me find a mentor.

Who will I encourage in their faith like Moses encouraged Joshua?

Joshua 1:5-9

What promise did God make to Joshua in verses 5 and 9?

Read Matthew 1:23.

What is one of the names of Jesus, and what does it mean?

How does knowing this encourage me in my daily life?

Does knowing this increase my desire to obey God in every area of my life?

Y N

Joshua 1:10-11

Joshua wasted no time obeying God.

Is there any area of my life in which I am delaying obeying God?

Y N

Write a prayer of confession here.

SHARE IT

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 2:1-11

Joshua 2:1-7

Joshua sent two men to spy out the land around Jericho.

Whose house did they stay in? _____

What did she do when the king of Jericho sent men to find the spies?

Why do I think Rahab did what she did? _____

Joshua 2:8-11

According to verse 9, what did she know? _____

The people of Jericho had seen God working in and through the Israelites.

What was their reaction to all that they had heard?

Rahab is listed in the heroes of the faith chapter, Hebrews 11. She had a healthy fear of God, Who was clearly with the Israelites.

What does she say about God in Joshua 2:11? _____

Do I have a healthy fear of God? Y N I'm not sure.

Have I placed my faith in God through the sacrifice of Christ? Y N

What does it mean to me that when I have a relationship with the Almighty, All-Powerful God, He is with me wherever I go? _____

Rahab might not naturally be someone we would expect God to highlight. Throughout Scripture, we see people we can identify with choosing to place their faith in God, in spite of the circumstances.

Who do I most identify with in the Bible? _____

I am choosing to put my faith in God regarding this circumstance:

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 2:12-24

Joshua 2:13-16

What did Rahab ask for in return for helping the two spies from Israel?

How did Rahab help the spies escape Jericho? _____

Joshua 2:17-20

The spies promised to protect Rahab and her family when they came back to conquer Jericho.

What were the conditions of the promise? _____

What would happen if Rahab did not follow the conditions of staying in the house with the rope/cord marking the window? _____

The conditions of the promise were there to protect Rahab and her family. God has put forth guidelines for followers of Christ to live by in His Word. We can see them as restrictive and negative, or we can see them for what they are—protection from danger and harm.

In what area of my life do I struggle to obey God's Word? _____

Can I see how my disobedience opens me up to danger and harm?

Y N Maybe

Am I willing to repent of my disobedience and stay within the protection of God?

Y N

According to verse 12, by Whom did Rahab ask the spies to swear?

In the previous passage, Rahab had heard about all that God had done. She, and the people of Jericho, knew that God would give the land to the Israelites. She put her faith and trust in God.

Just as the circumstances looked bleak for Rahab, what circumstances seem bleak, hopeless, in my own life? _____

Like Rahab, am I ready to put my faith in God for these circumstances, no matter how difficult it seems? Y N

I will spend time in prayer about this right now.

SHARE IT

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 3:1-17

This was the first big demonstration of God's power since Joshua was appointed the leader of the Israelites.

Joshua 3:1-5

What did it mean that the Ark, carried by the Levitical priests, moved out first? Who was leading the people of Israel? (Hint: the covenant of ...)

What did Joshua tell the people to do before they headed out? (v. 5)

What do I think that means? _____

Though the instructions in the Law are very specific, what it boils down to is this: The Israelites acknowledged God's holiness. They admitted any sin in their lives and asked for God's forgiveness.

We no longer have to make sacrifices to pay for our sins since Christ's death on the cross paid once and for all for our sin.

Do I regularly take the time to acknowledge God's holiness? Y N

Do I regularly ask God to show me any sin in my life so that I can ask for His forgiveness and repent of my sin? Y N

Joshua 3:6-17

According to verse 7, what would the crossing of the Jordan show the Israelites about Joshua? _____

What in my life shows that God is with me? _____

Is there anything in my life I am convicted to change so that others will know that I am a follower of Christ? Y N

What happened when the priests carrying the Ark touched the water of the Jordan? (v. 16) _____

In what part of the river was the Ark and the priests while the people passed through on dry ground? _____

I will spend some time thanking God for being with me wherever I go.

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 4:1-14

Joshua 4:1-14

Who did God direct Joshua to choose? _____

What were they chosen to do? _____

What were the stones used for? _____

Have I visited a memorial? Y N

Think of a memorial you have seen or heard/read about.

What is the purpose of the memorial? _____

What was the purpose of the 12-stone memorial? _____

According to verse 6, who was the memorial built for? _____

One of the many reasons we read the Bible is to see how God has worked in the past.

How does seeing how God has worked in the past affect the way I see my present circumstances? _____

How does it affect the way I think about the future? _____

Who do I know that speaks about how God has worked in their life?

Does hearing their story encourage my own faith? Y N

I will ask one godly leader this week to share how God has worked in their life.

How has God worked in my life? _____

I will take time this week to ask God to remind me of how He has worked in and through my life.

Who will I share my story with this week? _____

I will ask God to give me an opportunity to encourage someone else with my story this week.

SHARE IT

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 4:15-5:1

Only after all the people had passed through the Jordan, the stones had been collected for the memorial, and another set of stones had been built in the middle of the Jordan, did the priests carrying the Ark come out of the Jordan.

Joshua 4:15-5:1

What happened when they came out of the Jordan? (v. 18) _____

Where was the memorial built? (v. 20) _____

Who did Joshua want the Israelites to talk to about the meaning of the memorial?

This was the second time the Israelites passed through a body of water on dry ground. When was the first? (v. 23) _____

What two reasons are given in verse 24 for why God did this?

1. _____
2. _____

One of our purposes on earth is for followers of Christ to glorify God in all we do. In what way has my life brought glory to God? _____

What am I convicted to change about my life so that I can bring glory to God? _____

Is there anyone I know who shows in their daily life how mighty God is? _____

What can I learn from that person? _____

Like the Israelites, do I fear God—am I in awe of Who God is? Y N
How would focusing on Who God is affect how I live each day?

How did the surrounding people groups react when they heard about the Israelites passing through the Jordan on dry ground? (v. 5:1) _____

What obstacle in my own life seems impossible to overcome? _____

Am I ready to trust the God Who stopped the waters of the Jordan with my obstacle? Y N

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with:

TRUTH: Joshua 5:2-15

Joshua 5:2-12

The nation of Israel was about to take the first step to claiming the Promised Land. But first God told Joshua to renew the Covenant with Him through circumcision and celebrating the Passover. The people needed a physical reminder of the Covenant, that they were a people set apart to the Lord.

In what ways are followers of Christ different from the surrounding culture?

How am I different from the surrounding culture? _____

One way the Bible teaches us to be different in our behavior is through the “one-anothers”: love one another, forgive one another, encourage one another, pray for one another, serve one another ...

Does my behavior reflect the “one-anothers”? Y N Sometimes
 Of the “one-anothers” listed, which is the most difficult for me? Why?

What happened the day after the Israelites celebrated Passover? (v. 11)

What had God been providing for food for the Israelites since they left Egypt?

Do I trust God to provide for my needs like He did for the nation of Israel?
 Y N

Joshua 5:13-15

Who did Joshua see near Jericho? How did Joshua react? _____

Why did Joshua remove his sandals? _____

What do I need to remove from my life to honor God, Who is holy?

I will work on that starting today.

Realizing my Quiet Time isn't done until I have shared it with someone, this is what I will share:

This is who I will share it with: